

WHAT IS PRACTICE-READY ASSESSMENT (PRA)?

Under the direct supervision of trained physician assessors, internationally educated physicians who have completed residencies and practiced independently outside of Canada have their clinical skills observed and assessed for readiness to practice within Canada. The focus is on meeting rural and remote medicine needs in Canada.

GET INVOLVED! BECOME AN ASSESSOR

Learn more at mcc.ca/pr-assessor

"I believe in this program's ability to adequately identify candidates that would best fit into Canadian practice."
SIPPA Assessor

"I was an IMG myself and I wanted to give back to the healthcare system."
PRA-BC Assessor

