

Society of Rural Physicians of Canada
27TH ANNUAL RURAL AND REMOTE MEDICINE COURSE
Halifax Nova Scotia • Halifax Convention Centre
APRIL 4 - 6, 2019

Dr. Shannon MacPhee

SESSION 347

What to do When it Might be Child Abuse?

On overview of when to suspect, how to report and what to do in cases of suspected child abuse and non-accidental trauma.

1. To detect sentinel injuries.
2. To understand reporting requirements for sexual activity.
3. To improve confidence in detecting and reporting.
4. Tips for working with families while you are disclosing to child protection.