COURSE DESCRIPTION

This formative program aims to provide participants with immersive learning experiences through the use of high fidelity simulation. Each simulation scenario will be followed by a structured debriefing session that will promote self reflection. Interactive workshops will allow participants to improve their technical skills in a safe learning environment.

OVERALL LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Through participation in the forum, participants will:

- Demonstrate principles of leadership during a crisis.
- Demonstrate principles of effective communication during a crisis.
- Apply principles of effective handover during a crisis.
- Apply ACLS treatment algorithms to crisis situations.
- Promote networking between participants.
- Develop a personal strategy to practice self-reflection.
